

MAKES CROSSING THE BORDER HOME FROM THAT SKI TRIP, feel like the bunny slope.

You'd never tackle fresh powder without the right equipment, so why do it when you cross the border back home? Now, thanks to the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative, crossing back into the U.S. from Canada, Mexico, and the Caribbean, by land and sea, will soon be easier. Starting June 1, 2009 new document requirements will streamline the process and help secure our borders. To learn more, visit www.GetYouHome.gov.
